NARRATIVE

(INCLUDE IF PHOTOS WERE TAKEN, FINGERPRINTS AND EVIDENCE IF ANY SECURED AT LOCATION AND ANY OTHER INFORMATION VITAL TO REPORT)

On June 30, 2022 at 2303 hour I Officer Shiers was patrolling the area of Avenue B and Fourth Street when I saw a red Mazda car sitting in the roadway north bound and in the left lane. As I got closer the car it pulled to the right lane and stopped. The Driver was talking to a black male on a bicycle. I had to get over on the shoulder in order to pass the car. I stopped and asked the driver to move out of the roadway. The driver was later identified as Malcom Stewart stated (I don't have to) at that time I reversed my patrol car so I could open my door. Once I got out I then walked back up to Mr. Stewart and asked for his driver license. Mr. Stewart stated that he did not have any.

I then asked Mr. Stewart how much he had to drink and he said nothing. At that time I could smell a overwhelming odor of intoxicating beverage coming from the car. I then as Mr. Stewart to step out of the car and he became very agitated and would not comply. As I tried to open the car door Mr. Stewart put his left hand on the door trying to keep it shut. I reached through the window to unlock the door and that's when Mr. Stewart grabbed my hand then pushed it away from the lock. I then pulled my tazer and ordered Mr. Stewart out of the car several time before he complied. Once out of the car I placed Mr. Stewart under arrest and began searching him for weapons. Mr. Stewart continued to resist by pulling away. Mr. Stewart began cursing me as I tried to search his person. I tried to placed Mr. Stewart in the passenger rear seat of my patrol car as he continued to curse and resist.

As I pulled Mr. Stewart's wallet from his left rear pocket he turned toward me yelling and spit from his mouth was hitting me in the face. I tried to turn Mr. Stewart away from me that's when he snatched away from me as I had his wallet in my hand and it broke the chain connecting the wallet to his belt loop. Mr. Stewart stated give my wallet to Lieutenant Jackson so he can give it to a female standing near the patrol car.

Case # C-26050-22

NARRATIVE

I then handed the wallet to Lieutenant Jackson and walked toward the red Mazda and could hear Lieutenant asking who he wanted to give the wallet to. Lieutenant Jackson then walked to a female hand handed the wallet to her. I then began to check the car for weapons and evidence. I then ran the tag number through dispatch and they advised me that it should be displayed on a 2004 Chevy not a 2017 Mazda. I then ran the VIN number and found that the car was stolen from Jackson Mississippi. I then called for the next wrecker on rotation to tow the car.

Lieutenant Jackson said he would sit with the vehicle so I could transport Mr. Stewart to the Lexington Police Department for booking. I then left the scene and started toward the Police Department and Mr. Stewart was still cursing and stated that he was going to beat my ass. I told Mr. Stewart if he didn't stop he would only catch more charges and he stated (when we get to the jail and you take these cuffs off I'm going to beat your fucking ass that a promise). Mr. Stewart continued to say that and call me white mother fucker.

Once at the Police Department Mr. Stewart could not follow simple instruction and was and continued to resist me as I searched his person. I could smell the intoxicating beverage odor coming from his breath and noticed that his eyes were bloodshot red. While listen to Mr. Stewart talk (curse) and threaten me I could hear him slurring his words. Mr. Stewart was sitting in a chair and I could see his body swaying back and forth. Once completing the proper paper work for booking I then transported Mr. Stewart to the Holmes County Jail.

Once at the Jail Mr. Stewart was still cursing and calling me names as I took the cuffs off he stated toward me as if he was going to keep his promise and fight me. I pulled my tazer halfway out of the holster and ordered Mr. Stewart back. At that time he stopped walked back a couple steps then started toward me again in a threaten manner as I ordered his to stop the second time. The Jail then opened the door and I was able to exit the Jail. END OF REPORT
